

What the model actually sees

One real example from each level — the model is given the very same instruction a human received.

FORM

iconicity · does it sound like its meaning? scale 1–7

high “oomph” 6.9

low “how” 1.3

SYNTAX

grammaticality · is it well-formed? scale % grammatical high “a nice small German electric bike” 97%

low “an electric German small nice bike” 11%

LEXICAL · AFFECTIVE

valence · positive or negative? scale 1–9

high “vacation” 8.5

low “murder” 1.5

LEXICAL · PERCEPTUAL / MOTOR

concreteness · abstract or concrete? scale 1–5

high “yo-yo” 5.0

low “belief” 1.2

LEXICAL · CONCEPTUAL

age of acquisition · when is it learned? scale years

late “penury” 21 yr

early “momma” 2 yr

SENTENCE SEMANTICS

plausibility · does it make sense? scale 1–7

high “The operator stopped the machine.” 7.0

low “The mountain had been promptly delivered.” 1.3

EACH ITEM IS DROPPED INTO THE ORIGINAL HUMAN INSTRUCTION — UNCHANGED

“Please rate the word yo-yo on a scale from 1 (abstract) to 5 (concrete). Answer with one digit.”